Warren County Detectives Investigating Bank Robbery

February 14, 2017
8:00 p.m.

Detectives from the Warren County Sheriff's Office are currently investigating a bank robbery. On Tuesday, February 14, 2017, at 2:31 p.m., a male suspect entered the New Horizons Credit Union located at 209 East Forest, in South Lebanon. The suspect, wearing a dark hoodie, ski mask, blue jeans and brown work boots, rushed to a window and demanded cash from the teller. After getting a large amount of cash and concealing it in a bag, he fled and escaped on foot.

The suspect is believed to be the same suspect from the robbery five days ago. He is possibly in a black Chevrolet extended cab S-10 pickup truck. This incident is still under investigation by the Warren County Sheriff's Office, and anyone with information about this case is urged to contact Lieutenant John Faine at 513-695-1522.
